Welcome and Call to Worship

Leslie Rosencrans

One: Beloved child of God, you are welcome here....

Many: We give thanks to God for bringing us into this moment of worship.

One: For no matter who you are or where you've been, you matter to God and to us.

Many: Our hearts rejoice and give thanks for all those who have come before us and made a place for us to worship, pray, sing, wonder, doubt, believe, and just be.

One: May the love of God through Christ our Lord convince you of your worth and invitation into this body of believers as we worship together in thanksgiving and hope.

Litany of Praying

Leslie Rosencrans

One: When we pray, we have the potential to bring all of who we are before God. We engage our minds in what we believe about God and what we think about our world. We engage our hearts as we articulate our emotions. We engage our bodies with our postures of humility or desperation. And we engage our souls as we open them up to God's whisper.

Many: O God who hears our prayer, continue to teach us to pray and be open before you.

One: There are certainly times when we reach the limit of our ability to put into words the contents of our hearts and minds, so we groan with our bodies and yearn in our souls to find comfort and your peace, O God. There are also times when we struggle to pay attention; we find it hard to quiet the storms raging in our minds or in our hearts and we just sit in prayerful obedience with you.

Many: Help us to pray, especially when it is difficult and fleeting.

One: And there are times when we know how we want to pray, we have a sense for how we ought to pray, but our loathing for our enemies, our fear of the answer, and our shame prevent us from bringing our honest prayer to you.

Many: Lord, give us the courage to pray in the midst of rage, despair, and guilt.

One: We believe you hear our prayers. We trust you will listen beyond our fumbling words and anxious hearts. We know that we are fully known by you, so help us to pray for ourselves and for our sisters and brothers—all of them. Help us to grow in our trust in you.

All: Fill us with your Holy Spirit as we seek to be open before you and trust in your love.

Responsive Reading of Psalm 119:97-104

Erin Conaway

One: Oh, how I love your law! It is my meditation all day long.

Many: Your commandment makes me wiser than my enemies, for it is always with me.

One: I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your decrees are my meditation.

Many: I understand more than the aged, for I keep your precepts.

One: I hold back my feet from every evil way, in order to keep your word.

Many: I do not turn away from your ordinances, for you have taught me.

One: How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

All: Through your precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.

Anthem

“Psalm 23”

arr. Paul Basler

Phillip Lowe, horn

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want,
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths

Of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table for me in the presence of my enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Amen.

Silent Reflection

I pray because I can't help myself. I pray because I'm helpless. I pray because the need flows out of me all the time, waking and sleeping. It doesn't change God, it changes me.

— C.S. Lewis
